

Would it Still Be Christmas

Lyrics and Music © Wannetta Godfrey 11/2004

Would it still be Christmas,
If you never tied a bow?
Would it still be Christmas,
Without a single flake of snow?
Would it still be Christmas,
If that star just had not shown?
Would it still be Christmas,
If the baby Christ weren't born?

Jesus, I thank you,
For I know You are the reason,
For the season I celebrate.
Jesus, I thank you,
You will always be the reason,
For the season I celebrate.
I celebrate..... Your birth, Your birth

Would it still be Christmas,
If the stable was too full?
Would it still be Christmas,
If Mary told the angel "No"?
Would it still be Christmas,
If Joseph sent his bride away?
Would it still be Christmas,
Without the bells of the holiday?

Jesus, I thank you,
For I know You are the reason,
For the season I celebrate.
Jesus, I thank you,
You will always be the reason,
For the season I celebrate.
I celebrate..... Your birth, Your birth, Your birth, Your birth.

Jesus, I thank you,
For I know You are the reason,
For the season I celebrate.
Jesus, I thank you,
You will always be the reason,
For the season I celebrate.
I celebrate..... Your birth, Your birth, Your birth, Your birth.
